REP. WILLIAMSON, SPONSOR OF MEASURE, SAYS PROB-LEM DIFFICULT

WASHINGTON, Feb. -(P)—The William bill to transfer the prohibition enforcement unit from the treasury to the department of justice was presented to the house today by its sponsors with a plea to make the nation as "bone dry" as possible.

Representative Williamson, republican, South Dakota, author of the measure to carry out President Hoover's recommendations, characerized prohibition enforcement as the most difficult problem that confronts the chief executive.

"A considerable body of men of position and influence," he said. are openly preaching the doctrine of nullification. Nullification is closely akin to rebellion, and rebellion means war."

Williamson assailed "the Weasel doctrine that those who like their home brew can brew it at home." Though he did not mention the New Jersey representative by name, presumably he was referred to an address on prohibition by Representative Franklin Fort, republican, New Jersey, interpretated as advocating that the government turn its attention to those who violated the law for commercial purposes and leave home brewing alone.

"The existing organization for the enforcement of prohibition is an anomaly in that it divides the machinery built up for the enforcement of a law to which there is a wide-spread resistance," he said. He declared detection of diversion, illegal stills and manufacture of alcoholic beverages was beyond the purpose and scope of the loctrine that those who like their

On the lands where corn was raised, the yield was from five to 10 bushels per acre more than where the fertilizer was not used. He urged the farmers to place their orders for the fertilizers at once.

Senate Committee Hears Protestants

AUSTIN, Feb. 5.-(A)-The senate AUSTIN, Fcb. 5.—(A).—The senate committee on governor's nominations was ready to report to the genate in executive session today its decisions on the protest against aconfirmation of John A. Valls to be district attorney of Laredo.

After hearing grievances against the prosecutor last night, the committeemen made up their minds what the report would be, but it was against the rules to divulge that decision before it was affirmed by the senate in a closed meet-d by the senate in a closed meeting.

Charges that District Attorney
Valls was not an American citizen were refuted with purported citizenship papers. The testimony showed that Valls was born in Bagdad, Mexico, but educated in the United States. Evidence was read

Arkansas, furnished a clue to his past. Miss Ruby Wiggins, manager with the manager showing that when a young man valls refused appointment to the consular service under President Porfitio Diaz because he said he was afraid the employment would imperil his citizenship. "I would not endanger my American citizenship for the proudest efft within fhe power of Mexico," was a passage written in a letter by Valls which was placed before he committee.

The protestants headed by Hal Brennan and O. W. Killam, Laredo of Mexican citizens and his distinct on the country had brought about strained relations between Laredo interests and the government across the Rio Grande on several occasions. Also they claimed he had been unfriendly to the cause of the allies, and that after he declared he could not under the law do anything about it, the enaged Americans stormed the newspaper pilant and destroyed it. Brennan pointed out that there was not an indictment pending against former President Calles of Mexico, whom Valls had threatened to arrest on a charge of conspiration of 30 days.

Indictment Not Warranted. Brennan said he had been a member of every grand jury empanelled in Webb, except seven or cipt, over a period of ten years and was a member of every grand jury empanelled in Webb, except seven or cipt, over a period of ten years. For the second time within recent weeks, constitutionality of the state anti-seining law was upheld in effect by a court ruling in district court at Rockport today. The ruling sustained a general demurrer of the state to the bill for a permanent injunction based on alleged unconstitutionality.

The Rockport suit was brought by commercial fishermen of Nueces and Aransas counties.

The case was not definitely closed, however. Judge T. M. Cox set Thursday morning as the time for the plaintiffs to file an amended motion. A favorable ruling on this motion would allow the suit to go to trial.

Stearn Realist, Proclaiming the Workable Faith; Was Jesus

Contrasting Sermon on Mount with Literature of He was no second-hend commentator, but an Original Authority. Oriental Cults - A Teacher who was Strong.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

Something to Grow Up To. Here was a new sort of Teacher, telling men how to live the good life; how to find felicity; how to

Here was a new sort of Teacher, telling men how to live the good life; how to find felicity; how to understand God. His principles were put forth as something to be practiced. Mere credal religion gets scant support from the Sermon on the Mount; every paragraph thunders the injunction. "Go and do it!"

By the common consent of the ages, the best and most workable law of life is that which Jesus here impacted into the few words coloquially called "The Golden Rule." Confucius once expressed the negative side of the same principle; but that is as near as the world's great thinkers ever got to this guide for everyday living.

It is a favorite verse for children; yet the longer we live and the farther we advance in understanding of life, the more profound and far-reaching this teaching seems. From a formula for childhood's conduct it develops into a business code, and a law of international relationships. There are still undiscovered depths and heights in this single sentence which, as Martin Luther quaintly says, tless up into a little bundle the teachings of the whole Sermon on the Mount. This apothegm is profoundest philosophy made portable. The Golden Rule, supplanting the world's rule of gold, is the way of the golden life.

Eugenists on Clergy's Children. Many men ministers especially, are finding it hard to keep calmand clear-eyed in the midst of somany new and revolutionary ideas which label themselves as religious. This shock of surprise and alarm surely cannot come to ownor is familiar with the warnings of Jesus Himself, that false prophets would arise. There ever have been much, and there ever will be deceiving the very elect.

What of it? Jesus gave an infallible test for proving them; the doctrine is to be interpreted by that deed. "By their fruits shall ye Lately I have been reading several volumes of excerpts from the wisdom literature of the various oriental nations. As I dug my weary way through chapter after chapter of these of-tlauded Eastern cutts, I recalled Max Muller's saying that research into the literature of oriental religions yields a few grains of wisdom for a great deal of chaff. My outstanding impression is of the vagueness of it all, and, in general, of its common-placeness and unreality.

By contrast we have the remarkable defiteness of the tachings of Jesus, as summarized in the Sermon on the Mount, which has furnished the text for three consecutive Sunday school lessons. Jesus was as explicit as He was profound. The red blood of reality, pulses in the arteries of His speech. There is no mistaking what Immans in these great passages from Matthew's Gospel. They are not only clear, but they are also luminous. Any child may grasp make his own answer; reminding him meaning of the Master.

Yet his name is one of the great ones in Christian literature; and his "Christian Pear," written for his own village parishioners, still holds a place alongside of the Prayer Book.

So Out of "The Christian Year" many hymns have been selected, chief among them being "Sun of My Soul," which comprises certain stanzas of the fourteen which made up the second poem in this book, written to help worshippers observe the Holy Days. (Another is the familitar wedding hymn, "Voice That Breathed O'er Eden.").

Kelbe had no though of becoming a hymn writer. His verses, long kept in manuscript, were issued ananymously in 1827, at the criteraty of the modest author's aged father. The little book fell upon instant popularity.

Something of a prodigy was Kelbe. Better External Treatment Wins New Users All Over the World

Every year since the introduction of Vicks VapoRub, more and more people have given up the old-fash-ioned way of "dosing" colds and turned to this modern external method. Today, the whole trend of medical practice is away from need-

Mothers of young children especially appreciate Vicks because there's nothing to swallow, and, of course, nothing to upset delicate stomachs. Just rubbed on, its medicated vapors are released by the heat of the body and inhaled direct the inflamed air-passages. At the same time Vicks acts through the skin like a poultice or plaster,"drawing out" tightness and soreness.

Ambassador Hugh L. Gibson, voicing the American viewpoint, suggested that light cruisers and destroyers should not be lumped together as they would be under the French plan. The Italian delegate, Sariani, stated his country's position, favoring the general global system of limiting tonnage as contrasted with limitation by categories, which is favored by America. Great Britian and Japan.

Admiral Takarabe, Japanese ad-Admiral Takarabe, Japanese admiralty head, was an attentive listener as the experts dealt with the various points, but he had no suggestions of his own to offer.

A British spokesman described the morning's discussions as frank and hopeful, alucidations of various points being of a helpful nature. He declared difficulties which were face.

Reservations Normal.

Difficulties, he said, undoubtedly would exist, but the more they were discussed the more amenable they tended to become rather than unyielding. Reservations which had had made—and the spokesman called attention that all countries had made certain reservations—were normal reservations such as would be expected in such situations.

new Fisher bodies reveal in every detail the artistry that has made the Fisher name famous throughout the motor car world. In beauty of line and color, in balance and harmony of design, they represent one of the greatest style triumphs in Fisher history. And the promise of this exterior beauty is more than fulfilled when you look inside the car. Upholsteries are richer and more durable. The instrument panel carries a new and more attractive grouping of the control instruments. Seats are wider and deeper. In fact, not a single feature has been overlooked that would add to the comfort and convenience of both driver and passengers.

THE GREATEST

In addition to its new beauty, the new Chevrolet Six represents a remarkable advance in every phase of performance. Its improved sixcylinder valve-in-head engine has been increased to 50 horsepower-giving faster acceleration, greater reserve energy and more comfortable high speeds. Steering has been made safer and easier by a new front axle assembly. Four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers provide exceptional riding comfort. Fully enclosed, internal-expanding, weather-proof brakes give positive braking control. And numerous structural improvements add to the car's depend-

Wheat Prospects Augur Hard Work For Grain Setup By FRANK I. WELLER

Farm editor, Aassociated Press
Feature Service,
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—(F)—
The $20,00,000 Farmers' National Grain corporation, through which the government hopes to maintain a favorable market for American wheat, faces its first crop season with but little encouragement from wheat, faces its first crop season with but little encouragement from domestic and foreign conditions.

As indicated by the agricultural outlook report for 1930, there will be virtually no change in the price situation unless fall-sown wheat suffers severe winter damage or the spring wheat acreage is reduced; another large crop of winter wheat is in prospect for the United States; with average yields, the world supply will be about the same as this season, and there will he keen competition from Canada, he keen competition from Canada

Australia, Argentina and possibly Russia in the export markets. That combination of conditions would mean that the United States would mean that the United States has before it the problem of findinga profitable market for a large surplus of wheat for which there will be no more than a normal world demand. It is the exact problem which the agricultural marketing act hoped to meet through the federal farm board, and the board, in turn, through the grain corporation.

In theory, the answer lies in controlled marketing of the entire

In theory, the answer lies in controlled marketing of the entire crop—feding it into consumer channels in proporation to domestic and foreign demand.

Actually, however, the basic question still is one of overproduction. The board has warned against expansion of acreage. Chairman Legge said a statement might be issued concerning spring wheat.

"With another large crop of hard red winter wheat in prospect," the outlook report says, "growers of hard spring winter wheat are likely to find an expansion in the pres-ent acreage of this class of wheat

INTERMEDIATE SCHEDULE CALLS FOR GAMES EVERY TUESDAY AND THURSDAY

Schedule for the Interme-Sunday school basketleague, sponsored by the sicana Sunday School Athletic Association, was announced Wednesday morning following several meetings of the executive commitings of the executive committee in which the schedule was arranged and rules adopted. The plan for the intermediate department, with nine teams entered, includes games every Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the local Y. M. C. A. which will begin at 7:45 o'clock and continue until the two games have been placed.

continue until the two games have been played.

The initial game of the season will be played Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock between the First Presbyterian and I. O. O. F. Home teams, with the Eleventh avenue cagers opposing the State Home in the finale of the first evening's program. The games were originally scheduled for Tuesday, but owing to the fact that the Corsicana Triangles will be in Dallas playing the third and deciding game for the championship of the North East Texas Y district, the games were set for Wednesday.

Rules Laid Down
Rules which are to govern the activities of players and teams during the season, adopted at recent activities of players and teams during the season, adopted at recent meetings of the executive committee, state that each player must have attended Sunday school two Sundays prior to participation in any game, and if absent without an acceptable excuse, must be present two more Sunday before reinstated.

sportsmanship like collider is expected at all times from players and coaches, and a breach of the sporting code will subject the player or players to suspension, the length of which will be determined length of which will be determined by the executive committee.

Transfers Not Permitted
No player can transfer his membership from one member school to another without drawing one year suspension. A player cannot waive his classification after he has played one game with any team, that is, no player of junior rank can play one game with juniors and then advance to intermediate standing. A junior player can enter intermediate play at the first of the season, but must continue in that class. An intermediate player cannot, under any consider-tinue in that class. An infermediate player cannot, under any consideration, play junior basketball.

Games will be forfeited if a team is not ready to play five minutes after the referee has called the game. An ineligible player participating in the game will cause that team to forfeit the contest.

games that they could tie with the leaders.

It is a different story with the Orange and White team. Coach Fred Walker seems to be sitting high piloting his five to a championship. The Longhorns got an even break with the four time champions in Arkansas and has an easier schedule to smash from here on out than the Hogs. The Mustangs are still to be figured in the outcome of the race. They plan to beat both the leaders.

Two entirely new "finds" have sprung up overnight in the camp of Texas Christian University's Horned Frog cagers. Both appeared simultaneously in the game Tuesday night with the Baylor Bears.

Discarding the slow offense which had met with such disastrous results in four previous games, Coach Francis Schmidt turned his Frogs loose against the Bears with a fast-

The five-foot-seven substitute dribbled and passed rings around the Bears, broke up thrust after thrust at the Frog goal, and fed the ball to Eury and Roberson to make the points that put the Purple far in

The Baylor game marked the first time this season that the Chrisians have employed a sweeping at-ack. Heretofore, Schmidt has relied on a slow and conservative drive that has in each instance giv-en the opposition plenty of time to get set. The Reds acquired the flashy young shortstop yesterday for an unnamed player and an unannounced sum of money. It is expected the Yankees will use the Cincinnati player to pay an obligation the club owes in the Pacific Coast League.

But the question arises as to how it happened that the other American League clubs happened to waive on Durocher and just what use Cincinnati expects to make of him. Leo is a poor hitter, batting only .246 last season, but he is a brilliant fielder and an expert talker. To use him, Cincinnati probably will have to break up an already fine fielding combination of Ford and Critz, who made a record of 194 double plays while playing shortstop and second base for the Reds in 1928.

Acting as executor and trustee is a burdensome and responsible task for an individual. Why ask a friend or relative to assume such a burden?

To be able to act as an appraiser --- to deal with real estate intelligently-to control investments-to be an estate expert -a tax specialist and an accountant-all in one-are qualities you can hardly expect to find in the same person.

For the average individual such responsibilities either entail a great amount of personal effort and work-or involve extra expense in engaging experts. Otherwise the estate suffers through lack of competent administration.

But, in the hands of this Bank such matters are handled safely, promptly, and efficiently.

Moses told again the defense story of Brady's decline after he left the civil appeals bench. The defense, he said, did not and would not deny that Brady killed Miss Lehlia Highsmith.

His point, Moses went on, was whether Brady's mind was capable on the night of the killing, of conceiving malice. Moses insisted that it was not. m., was strong.

COURTROOM, AUSTIN, Feb. 4.

(P)—Under the lash of a young prosecutor's accusing words and the defending argument of an old friend, John W. Brady sat with half closed eyes and bowed head today. Hardy Hollers, assistant county attorney in his twenties, opened the jury arguments in the trial of Brady, once an appellate court judge, for the murder of a 28-year-old stenographer, Miss Lehlia Highsmith.

The lawyer turned to face Brady once or twice during the argument; but Brady was looking down.

a defendant in this case, and you are charged that no person can be punished for an act committed while insane. However, every person is presumed to be sane until the contrary appears from the evidence. He is presumed to entertain, until this appears, a sufficient degree of reason to be responsible for his acts.

The defendant in this case has filed with the court an affidavit, stating, among other things, that he has never been convicted of a felony in this state or in any other state. Now, if you find the defendant guilty of murder and the punishment assessed by you is for not more than five years, and you further find that he has never been convicted of a felony in this state or in any other state, you may, in your discretion, cause the sentence to be suspended; and in case you desire to suspend the sentence of that you find the defendant has never been convicted of a felony in this state or in any other state, and further show that you recommend the suspension of the sentence.

Teague Hi School Enrollment Shows New High Record

TEAGUE, Feb. 4.-(SP)-The Teague public schools have finished the first half of the year's work, and have entered the second semester, according to school offi-mester, according to school officials.

About 25 children were promoted to the high school, raising the enrollment in the high school department to about 355, by far the largest number on record in Teague. The average attendance will be approximately 300 as compared to approximately 100, ten years ago.

that Texas would be reduced to one regional office which, he explained, would not meet the needs of so large an area as Texas.

"We do not believe that it would be convenient for the service men, or wise policy to combine the two fexas offices," said Mr. Cox, "at least for eight or ten years when the greatest part of the cases will have been disposed of."

There are approximately 170,000 former World War veterans in Texas, Mr. Cox said, and not more than 25 per cent are members of the legien. There are 348 active posts in the state, and he has already visited 139.

"I propose to visit every post in the state during my term as Texas commander," said Mr. Cox, "and hope to see the ranks of the legion greatly increased."

CHARLES E. HUGHES NAMED TO SUCCEED WM. HOWARD TAFT

ONE OF NATION'S FOREMOST JURISTS AND STATESMEN ACCEPTS HIGH PLACE

BY RICHARD L. TURNER Associated Press Staff Writer.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 4. (AP)—Charles Evans Hughes, one of the foremost of the nation's jurists and statesmen, is to be the next chief justice of the United States. Justice of the United States.

He will succeed William Howard Taft, who, broken in health by years in the public service, has been forced to resign and devote his entire attention to the betterment of his physical condition.

In spite of Mr. Hughes' acknowledged talents, all Washington was surprised last night to learn of his appointment. His nomination was name went almost unmentloned.

But in the meanwhile, the president had been busy with the long distance telephone. He reached Mr. Hughes in New York, offered him the appointment and obtained an immediate acceptance. With a radiant smile, the appointee later told newspapermen he would accept the post as the greatest opportunity for service that had come his way.

While Mr. Taft is the only man in history to serve as president and chief justice, Hughes missed the former by a narrow margin. Opposing Woodrow Wilson in the campaign of 1916, he failed of election by 23 electorial votes. So close was the ballotting the outcome was in the ballotting the outcome was in doubt for days.

Two Men Different

Taft brought to the supreme bench his cheerful philosophies and his famous chuckle. His studious nature and industrious habits were hidden behind his jovial manner. Frequently he relieved the tedium of protracted legal disputes with one of his characteristic witticisms. With Hughes, the student of affairs and the austerity of intellect are predominant. The public
